

Students Taking Apex Learning Advanced Placement Courses Again Outpace National Average

AP Exam Scores Demonstrate Effectiveness of Courses Offered by Apex Learning

SEATTLE, WA — April 28, 2016 — Apex Learning, the leading provider of blended and virtual learning solutions to the nation's schools, continues the trend of outpacing national scores on the College Board AP exams. During the 2014-2015 school year, the average number of students earning a score of 3 or better on the Advanced Placement (AP) exam across Apex Learning Virtual School AP courses was 68 percent, seven percentage points higher than the national average of 61 percent for the same courses. Each year, Apex Learning students have performed as well or better than the national average.

"Student performance on the College Board AP exams demonstrates the effectiveness of our AP courses," said Cheryl Vedoe, CEO of Apex Learning. "When using our digital curriculum, districts can have confidence knowing their students are well-prepared for not only the AP exams, but also college level coursework."

Apex Learning offers 13 online AP courses authorized by the College Board and designed to support students and teachers working in both blended and virtual learning environments, including: Biology, Calculus AB, Chemistry, English Language and Composition, English Literature and Composition, Environmental Science, Macroeconomics, Microeconomics, Psychology, Spanish Language, Statistics, U.S. History, U.S. Government and Politics.
